Red bars upon a field of gold,
White cross upon a field of red,
 Courage, the red,
 Purity, the white,
 The cross for sacrifice,
So fashioned Mercy's Shield.

Dedicated to

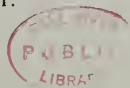

RIGHT REVEREND MONSIGNOR JOHN H. HACKETT

"His opinions and judgments were widely sought and acknowledged by everyone in and out of the diocese."

A native of Fall River, Right Reverend Monsignor John H. Hackett was elevated to the rank of Right Reverend Monsignor in 1964, at the closing of the Second Vatican Council. The youngest priest ever appointed to the position of Domestic Prelate, Monsignor Hackett was one of the most highly esteemed members of our diocesan clergy.

We, the young members of our Christian community are particularly indebted to Monsignor Hackett for his example of Christlike dedication and service. As assistant curate at St. Thomas More Church, Somerset, and later, as chaplain and religious instructor at Sacred Hearts Academy in Fall River, Monsignor served the youth of our diocese in what was destined to be a brief but intensely effective priesthood. To this outstanding man the seniors of Mount Saint Mary Academy dedicate the 1968 MERCYCREST.

ADMINISTRATION

Each pure and gentle deed of mercy brings
An honest recompense,
and from it looms
That sovereign knowledge of thy duty done --
A joy beyond all dignities on earth.

Bishops

The Most Reverend James Joseph Gerrard, Auxiliary Bishop of the Diocese of Fall River, has a deep and growing interest in the betterment of the individual through Catholic education. We shall ever remember him as the man who rejoiced in giving service to others.

His Excellency, the Most Reverend James Louis Connolly, has always shown interest in our diocesan high schools and in their activities. He has devoted much of his time to the promotion of Catholic secondary education and has always encouraged academic excellence in the Fall River Diocese.

Superintendent

Reverend Patrick O'Neill, Superintendent of Schools, dedicates himself to the planning of our diocesan school curriculum. It is his task and privilege to provide for the intellectual and spiritual formation of all the students in our diocese, in accordance with the progress of the Church in the modern world.

As Mother Provincial of the Sisters of Mercy of the province of Providence, Mother Mary Kieran has been a source of encouragement to both the faculty and students at the Mount. We, the Senior Class, are grateful for her guidance.

Mother Provincial

Assistant

Mother Provincial

With due consideration to each Sister's abilities and qualifications, Sister Mary Nathaniel, Assistant Mother Provincial, provides every Mercy school with a professionally trained religious faculty. Her foresight assures the student body of teachers fully equipped to carry out their many works of mercy.

What a privilege it is to have Sister Kathleen M. Farley as our new principal! Sister, who knows the delicate art of tempering firmness with kindness, has earned the respect and admiration of all.

Principal

Vice Principal

We Mount girls hail Sister Mary Ludivine, our vice-principal, as our dynamic example of dedication. Alert to our needs, Sister is always eager to help and to advise us.

Industrious art students, Karen Aguiar, Jacqueline Cummings, Jane Teves, and Francine Ouimet exhibit their talent in many imaginative projects. Here Mrs. Bartholomew, our art teacher, provides them with experienced guidance.

Besides teaching Spanish and moderating the Spanish Club, Sister Mary Denisita finds a certain reward in conducting religion classes. Sister devotes much of her class time preparing each girl to lead a true and intense Christian life.

Sister Mary Owen, a vivacious new member of the Mount faculty, spends most of her time in the gym organizing our many enjoyable sports activities. Sister's schedule also includes world history.

A devoted English teacher, Sister Carol Mary is also a member of the religion department. She finds her role as moderator of the MERCIAN a challenging one. The Humanities Club is a new project for sister.

Sister Mary Antonine, history teacher, and Elaine Chaves enjoy the many new books supplied by our library.

Sister Mary Adele, French and Spanish teacher and French Club moderator, shares a light moment with her budding French scholars.

"Buenos dias, clase!" Spanish class marks the beginning of Sister Mary Ludivine's busy day. Our vice-principal also finds time to moderate our vocal Student Council and to direct our dramatic productions.

Sister Mary LaSalette divides her time between the Guidance Office and the Business Department, wherein she teaches office practice, typing, and shorthand. Her role as Guidance Counselor includes giving experienced advice to all girls in need of help, whether it be in the realm of immediate part-time work or of future professions.

Sister Mary Francella, a new faculty member, teaches typing and English. Here sister is commenting on Jane Soroka's fine booklet. Joanne Drenniak looks on approvingly.

Sister Mary Phyllis and Sheila Jennings check through slides pertaining to France. Sister, who teaches French, religion, and geometry, also moderates the Debate Club and the National Honor Society.

MERCY UNTO OTHERS

Teach me to feel another's woe,
To hide the fault I see;
That mercy I to others show,
That Mercy show to me. ALEX. POPE

MERCY

Sodality

Under the direction of Sister Mary Albertus, Sodalists, in imitation of Mary, continually practice the spiritual and corporal works of mercy in spirit and in truth.

Our new members of Sodality, the Probationers, show their eager anticipation of group activities. These sophs are always ready to display their love of God by giving of themselves to others in need of help.

Sodality officers Ann Suneson, prefect, Mary Harrington, treasurer, Betty Ann Picard, vice-prefect, Jane McDonald, vice-prefect of the juniors, Diane Lavoie, treasurer of the juniors, and Coleen Lambert, secretary, skim their latest plans for a Christmas party to be held for the retired sisters at the Mount convent.

Pictured here are the senior and junior members of the Sodality. These girls undertake many spiritually rewarding endeavors, such as making Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets and distributing them to needy homes. All the members try to instill in others a Christ-like attitude towards everyday life.

Student Council

The Student Council maintains a line of open communication between faculty and student body. Sister Mary Ludivine moderates this organization.

Mary Beth Soares, Patricia Smith, Judith DePaola and Jacqueline Cummings, the four senior officers of the Student Council, explore the world.

National Honor Society

Two U.C.L.A. brain powers in the College Bowl are Ann Suneson and Dianne Blanchette. Pushing for U. Mass. are Diane Rochefort, Mary Harrington, Jeanne Boulay, and Ruth Faris. Our conscientious scorekeepers are Cynthia Callaghan, for U.C.-L.A., and Andrea Cichon, for U. Mass.

National Honor Society members must be young ladies of outstanding character, service, and leadership. They are chosen under the guiding hand of Sister Mary Phyllis.

Behold the officers of the National Honor Society! Seated are Judith Doolan, vice-president and Martha Nugent, president. Standing are Susan Bernier, secretary, and Diane Berger, treasurer.

On the stairway to success are the seventeen seniors who are active members of the National Honor Society. Each girl radiates the qualities of leadership, service, scholarship and character.

Debate Society

The Debate Society trains its members to think logically and to substantiate opinion with fact. Sister Mary Phyllis, moderator, assures us that, although hard work is required, great rewards are reaped.

Vivacious debaters, Carol Vasconcellos and Nicole Letendre, search for additional information on this year's debate topic. This is Nicole's second year in debating; Carol is a newcomer.

Language

This year's winners of our annual French hat contest were: Donna Imbriglio, Marie Sullivan, Diane Berger, Maureen Janick, Doris Levesque, and Laurian Cavanaugh.

Our two French Club presidents are Jeanne Boulay and Kathy Forrest.

The Spanish Club chose the following Mounties to lead: Ann Hefko, vice-president; Christine Talbot, treasurer; Mary Lou Shea, secretary; and Lucia Gagnon, president.

In keeping with modern requirements for the study of languages, the Mount curriculum offers Spanish and French. The Spanish Club is under Sister Mary Denisita's direction, while Sister Mary Adele guides the French Club.

A group of representative Science Club underclass members, with a desire to learn as much as possible about the scientific world, have begun their search for scientific achievement through the club and its activities.

Science Club members make ample use of our modern equipment and laboratory facilities. Sister Mary Albertus, moderator, introduces us to the wonder and joy of discovery.

Science

Confident Lorna Bronhard stands smiling between Mount's co-captains, Patricia Golden and Virginia Lowney.

For this year's pep, Mount depends upon Donna Castanho, Elaine Chaves, Donna Boutin, Judith Pimento, Denise Berube, Susan Morin, Marilyn Bentley, Sheila Correia, and Judith DePaola.

Fun and competition are plentiful in the sports department at Mount. The basketball team, encouraged by Sister Mary Owen, moves toward victory this year.

Sports

"Aim high — and hitch your ball to a basket!" Mount's team is: seated — Virginia Lowney, and Patricia Golden, co-captains; kneeling — Denise Levasseur, Joyce Andrews, Laurian Cavanaugh, Maureen Janick, Patricia Howard; standing — Gay Chrupcala, Patricia Cummings, Lucy Bettencourt, Colleen Gillick, Lorna Bronhard, Marguerite Letendre.

Ann Bibeau, Kathryn Jones, Barbara Lavoie, Diane Lavoie, and Mary Jane Newbury are seen at our Masquerade Party faithfully anticipating the arrival of the "Great Pumpkin." Will doubting Diane scare him away?

"Get that ball over," shouts the enthusiastic crowd at the gym-jamboree. Frances Manning tries to win for the seniors.

New "spring" creations were modeled by Theresa LeBlanc and Theresa Morin at the gym-jamboree.

Terror struck Mount as Lucy Bettencourt made her appearance at our Sodality Halloween Party.

Pumpkins, cornstalks, and autumn leaves provide atmosphere for our Halloween Masquerade Party. Also on Mount's social calendar was the gym-jamboree.

Parties

Mercian

The five energetic page editors of the Mercian are: seated — Sharon Janick; co-editors-in-chief, Diane Rochefort and Lena Arruda; standing — Jeannine Dubois and Christine Coffey.

The industrious Mercian staff includes: seated — Joan Flanagan, Mary Crosson, Carol Costa, Denise Ouellette, Colleen MacDonald, Monica Grace; standing — Lucia Gagnon, Jeannine Dubois, Lena Arruda, Christine Coffey, Mary Levesque, Jean Mehlmann, Diane Rochefort, and Sharon Janick.

A two-time winner of the National Scholastic Press Award for Journalism, the Mercian has given Mount all the vital information on school activities. Sister Carol Mary, moderator, helps mold the young journalists.

Mercycrest

The smiling faces of Sandra Barlow, literary editor, and Patricia Foy, co-editor of the Mercycrest, reveal their optimism.

The Mercycrest staff includes Jo-Ann Souza, Margery Gazzero, Betty Ann Picard, Mary Louise Shea, Marie Sullivan, Nancy Snyder, Natalie Patricio, Deborah Silvia, Cynthia Dufresne, Francine Ouimet, Sheila Camara, Virginia Plant, and (not pictured), Diane Berger and Mary Jane Sullivan.

The officers of the Orchestra pause to relax for a moment: Mary Levesque, concert mistress; Monica Grace, librarian; Mary Crosson, treasurer; Coleen Lambert, president; Ann Helger, vice-president; Laurie Sampson, secretary; Gail Raposa, librarian.

Orchestra

The orchestra, under the experienced direction of Mr. Arthur Paquette, provides the musical backbone for all concert endeavors, and is an integral part of Mount's extra-curricula life.

"Practice makes perfect." Orchestra members are happy to devote time and effort to foster a love and appreciation of music. Each performance seems more enjoyable than the last.

Underclassmen provided the musical background for Santa and his sleigh during our Christmas concert.

Glee Club

Sister Therese Mary helps provide the vitality which is so characteristic of our enthusiastic Glee Club. Their long and laborious hours of practice always seem to result in sweet, shining hours of song.

With joyous spirit the senior and junior Glee Club members pose for a group picture.

Marching through the symbol of the ring dance are Margaret Morgan and her escort, James Hardy. The occasion was the celebration dance honoring the reception of the junior class rings. It has been a tradition at Mount to reserve this dance for juniors only.

School Dances

The memories of those very special, enchanting nights at our school dances will ever be present in our hearts.

A dazzling array of colors was displayed at the Ring Dance. Even our stuffed animals enjoyed the fun.

Diane Rochefort and her escort, Ronald Petrin, dance to the many musical selections played by the "Odds and Ends."

Charlotte Cormier and Ann Helger with respective escorts, Ernest Czekwinski and Joseph Lipchinsky, enjoyed the memorable Junior Prom. Our "Endless Summer" theme evoked a seaside setting with a romantic beach scene.

The Junior Prom — a night to remember. How we wished that our "Endless Summer" would turn into an "endless evening."

Vivian and Nicholas are entranced by the soft melodies "just right" for dancing.

"Hurry girls!" The toll of Christmas bells is near at hand as Dot Polka, Sharon Janick, Jackie Soares, Frances Tyrrell, Betty Ann Picard, and Martha Nugent help pack the many Christmas gifts donated by all the Mounties for neighboring needy children.

Mount girls meet dear Sister Mary Rosarii and Sister Mary Ligouri at the Christmas party given for the aged sisters.

Works of Mercy

Officers of our new Humanities Club are: Sue Lauzier, vice-president; Susan Pacheco, president; Theresa LeBlanc, secretary; Rose Mary Shea, treasurer.

Humanities Club

The purpose of the Humanities Club is to explore the various fine arts. Under the direction of co-moderators Sister Carol Mary and Sister Marie Elizabeth, club members have enjoyed several cultural excursions.

Going Forth to Show Mercy

I've left the past in God's keeping,
-- the future His mercy shall clear;
And what looks dark in the distance,
May brighten as I draw near.
